Junior Activity Program Guidelines:

- Junior activities must be special events for just junior members.
- Activities should be enjoyable for the junior members but also promote either faith, volunteerism, or patriotism.
- Activity must be connected to and promote NCSF as the sponsor.
- Funds received as a subsidy for a junior activity are to be used, first to recoup any expense connected to the event and then held in the court treasury earmarked solely for future junior activities.
- At least one junior activity should include service to others. Putting faith into action by helping parish or community demonstrates our Love, Benevolence and Charity.
- Courts can sponsor 6 activities or projects annually for junior members (ages 15 and under). At least 5 junior members must be present at each event to qualify for subsidy.
- Guests are always welcome to attend, however only ONE guest event will be subsidized each year. Every junior member who is participating in the activity can invite up to 5 guests.
- The junior members and guests are required to sign themselves in on the back of this form.

Reimbursement:

- Each junior court activity will be subsidized:
 - (1) $10 activity bonus
 - (2) $5.00 bonus for photos
 - (3) $3.00 for each junior member who participated in the activity or project
- The subsidy given for the invited guests (ages 0-15) will be $2.00 per guest at ONE event yearly.
